July 1. 1924

My dear Miss Kitching
Many thanks for your kind letter,
the wonderful
bundle of official
papers & the cheque.

As you say, all
this expenditure
of time, paper &
typing seems
rather wasteful,
but it seems as if a public work

Yrs 2 affectionately & carefully
yours
Mabel

could not be carried on in these days
without such expenditure. I am very glad that you
went up for the meeting in London & also for the day
at Wembley; I am afraid that you must have been very tired
after the 2 night journeys. With regard to the cheque
I feel that I

<sup>11 p 3 pneu 39</sup> cannot refuse to take it, since you are so anxious to give it. There is no one who has proved
herself to be dear
than your true
loyal friend as you have done &
I am sure that she would wish me
to accept your offer. I always think with deep
gratitude & admiration
of your loving devotion to our

dear friend; how you walked over
her precious life
in those journeys
abroad elsewhere
show you contributed to the success of her work by your untiring
labours with your
pen. I know you will not like me
to write this, but
the statement will enable you to understand that

I think you are asking only for what is your due in regard to the Memorial. Now we need not say anything more about it.

I am hoping very much that I shall be able to be present at the meeting on the 11th.

I wonder if you are Miss would kindly

meet me somewhere
so that we may encounter the company at the office as we did before (as the daughters were). So far as I know I shall be in my old quarters
at Kensington.

If there is any change of address
I will write above.
I intend to go up on the 9th July & stay until the 16th.
I dread the
crowds in London,
but it seems a duty to go &
it will be a great pleasure to see you &
Miss Parish.
Please tell me
how when

21 p 8 p m 39
you & Miss Parson
go up to London & how you think we can meet on the 11th? Shall we meet somewhere
near Victoria R.
for early dinner
at 1. p. m.?

Need bring with me all those papers
referring to the Sept & Jan meeting
or only those referred to this meeting & the balance sheet.

With much love
to you & Miss Parson
